

FOUR INJURED IN THREE-CAR CRASH SUNDAY

Three sailors enroute to their base at Norfolk, Va., were among four injured in three weekend accidents investigated by state police from the Gettysburg sub-station.

The sailors were occupants of a car demolished Sunday night at 7:25 o'clock three miles south of here on the Emmitsburg Rd.

State police said Glenn L. Gipe, 19, Chambersburg, driving north, attempted to pass a northbound auto operated by Alfred Scott, 50, Linden R. 1.

Gipe saw the car of Howard M. Cronk, 20, Belmont, N. Y., headed south, and started to get back into the northbound lane. As he did so, the officers said, Gipe's car struck the rear of the Scott vehicle, and it swerved into the southbound lane of traffic and into the path of the Cronk car.

Damages Total $520

Damage to Scott's car was estimated at $20, and to the Gipe car $300. The 1950 Chevrolet sedan of Cronk, a sailor, was demolished when it collided headon with the Gipe vehicle. Damage to the Cronk car was estimated at $200.

Three sailors in Cronk's car were removed to the Warner Hospital in the local ambulance. All three were treated and discharged. They were Donald E. Lamb, 20, Friendship, N. Y., who had lacerations of the right eye, chin and nose; Harry O. Stock, 18, Conitoe, N. Y., fractured right wrist and multiple lacerations of the left arm; Charles W. Acker, 19, Sunbury R. 1, extensive lacerations of the face.

The maneuver forced the first car out in the middle lane and swerved into the eastbound lane, and headon into an oncoming machine.

"Only Bathed Once"

Mrs. Lemaster is also quoted as saying, "He only bathed once the whole time we were married."

The couple was married November 12, 1955, at Westminster. Later they separated, then resumed married life and finally separated permanently "at the end of June 1956" while residing on E. Middle St. here.

In another master's report filed with the prothonotary Attorney Eugene R. Hartman, master, recommends the divorce of Irene I. (Fisher) Koonitz, Gettysburg R. 3, from Clarence L. Koonitz, also of Gettysburg R. 3, on grounds of desertion. The couple, who were married August 6, 1938, at Hagerstown, separated April 15, 1955, when, according to the testimony, Mr. Koonitz left to reside with "some cousins."

MAN'S FAILURE TO BATHE CITED IN DIVORCE CASE

Attorney Franklin R. Bigham, master in the divorce action brought by Judy Ann (Newman) Lemaster, 20, Gettysburg R. 2, against Clarence Robert Lemaster, 22, Liverpool R. 1, recommends the divorce in his report to the county court. Among other things, the report states that Lemaster, according to his wife's testimony, "only bathed once the whole time we were married."

The report listed a number of claims on which the charge of indignities is based. Lemaster is accused of choking his wife, hitting her, and of boasting of a "Waynesboro girl."

Joy Edward, Littlestown R. 2, sister of Mrs. Lemaster, testified as to the bathing allegation. The report said, "The fact the defendant did not bathe and brush his teeth caused him to be so offensive she (Mrs. Edwards) requested him to do something about it." In her direct testimony Mrs. Edwards is quoted as saying, "I guess nobody likes to be around anybody when they don't take a bath."

FIND PLEASANT WAY TO SERVE COLD TURKEY

By CECILY BROWNSTONE
Associated Press Food Editor

One of the pleasantest ways to serve sliced leftover turkey is to accompany it with a fruit salad and a hot bread.

A popular salad, and one that tastes delicious with cold turkey, is made from avocado, orange sections and seedless grapes. The salad dressing recipe is brand new and its flavor and texture recommends it. Do try it!

The hot bread for this lunch or supper meal is simple to prepare. We've come upon recipes of this sort often, but we were never convinced of their worth until we tasted this version. Chances are both grownups and small fry will love it.

Avocado Fruit Salad
Ingredients: 1 avocado, 3 oranges (sectioned membrane free), small bunch seedless grapes, orange French dressing. Method: Cut avocados in half lengthwise; remove pits. Arrange 6 or 7 orange sections in avocado halves with white grapes. Serve with Orange French Dressing. Makes 6 servings.

Note: If desired, avocados may be peeled and sliced; arrange slices on salad grapes with orange sections and grapes.

Orange French Dressing
Ingredients: 1 can (6 ounces) frozen concentrated orange juice, 1/4 cup salad oil, 1/4 cup cider vinegar, 3 to 4 tablespoons sugar, 1/2 teaspoon dry mustard, 1/4 teaspoon salt, 1/4 teaspoon Tabasco sauce.

Method: Put undiluted orange juice concentrate, salad oil, vinegar, sugar, mustard, salt and Tabasco in jar, bowl or bottle. Shake or beat until blended; or mix in electric blender. Dressing may be stored covered in refrigerator. Shake well before using. Makes 1 1/2 cups dressing.

Toasted Cinnamon Sticks
Ingredients: Loaf of unsliced white bread, 2/3 cup evaporated milk, 3 tablespoons butter or margarine (melted), 1/2 cup sugar, 2 tablespoons cinnamon.

Method: Cut six 1-inch slices from loaf of bread. Remove crusts; cut each slice into 3 strips. Dip strips into undiluted evaporated milk, then brush with melted butter. Stir sugar and cinnamon together thoroughly; roll bread strips in mixture. Place on rack in shallow baking pan. Bake in hot (400 degrees) oven for 20 minutes. Makes 18 strips.

Five Explorer Scouts of Post 84 went on a "misery" hike over the weekend. The boys hiked from Caledonia to Big Flat, a distance of approximately twelve miles. They camped overnight on Saturday at Millburn shelter, and slept without tents on the ground, when the temperature was five degrees above freezing. The boys carried their entire equipment, including their bedrolls and food, while hiking. Explorers who endured were Wayne Miller, Wayne Reinman, Lee Kroust, Robert Eckenrode and James Evans.

In observance of International Missions Sunday, the Rev. Glenn Finchbaugh, pastor of Redeemer's United Church of Christ, delivered a sermon on the subject, "A Plea For Christian Missions," at the morning worship service Sunday. A vocal solo, "The Lord Is My Shepherd," was sung by Miss Mary Ann Burgeon, accompanied on the organ by Mrs. George A. Stoner. Installation of the new officers and departmental chairmen of the Women's Guild took place in charge of the pastor. The altar flowers were placed in memory of Charles W. Hawk Sr. by the Littlestown High School Class of 1959, of which Charles Hawk Jr. is a member. During the worship a nursery for pre-school children was conducted in charge of Mrs. Donald Brown and Mrs. Walter S. Mehring.

A schedule of events for Redeemer's Church has been announced as follows: Wednesday, 6:30 p.m., members and friends of the church are invited to attend the covered dish supper in the social hall, prior to the annual congregational meeting. Thursday, 6:30 p.m., Singing Juniors rehearsal; 7:30 p.m., Senior Choir rehearsal. Sunday, January 26, 10:15 a.m., installation service for the new minister, when the Rev. James W. Moyer, president of the Mercersburg Synod, will conduct the service. Sunday, February 2, 10:30 a.m., Youth service. Wednesday, February 19, Lent begins.

Special Anthem
The choir of Christ United Church of Christ sang the anthem "Sweet Peace, The Gift of God's Love" during the Sunday morning worship service. Ushers for the service were Ralph I. Unger, Bernard L. Warner, Mervin K. Myers and Freddie L. Dutterer. The sermon was delivered by the pastor, the Rev. G. Howard Koons. The altar flowers and bulletins were presented by Mrs. W. Raymond Warner and children in memory of their husband and father, W. Raymond Warner. It was announced that anyone desiring to place flowers on the altar for a given Sunday should sign the flower chart in the church vestibule, or contact one of the following members of the Altar Guild: Mrs. Stanley R. Sell, Mrs. David L. Messinger, Mrs. Clair R. Markle or Mrs. G. Howard Koons.

The choir of Christ Church will rehearse on Tuesday evening at 7:30 o'clock.

Doctor Cures
Sidewalk Patient

GRAND RAPIDS, Mich. (AP) — A Hooster doctor says he knows how to handle a "sidewalk consultant" patient.

This sort of patient, who makes a practice of asking a doctor's help at chance street meetings, is a bane of the profession, said Dr. E. Keith Hammond of Paoli, Ind., in a talk to the Michigan State Medical Society.

Dr. Hammond told of one in particular. The cure was quick.

"He told me he thought he had a hernia so I told him to strip on the spot for an examination."

DUNCAN, Okla. (AP) — This city in southwest Oklahoma has a non-smoking city council. Not one of the five members uses cigars, cigarettes or pipe.

BOY'S BASEMENT
WELL ORGANIZED
AS "SNAKE PIT"

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Man's best friend may be his dog, but 16-year-old Kraig Adler is partial to pythons.

In fact, he's probably the only high school senior in the country who could be late for school and get away with the excuse:

"I was sitting up with a sick snake."

Young Adler's interest isn't limited to pythons. His live pets run the whole range of reptilia. Included are 30 specimens of snakes, lizards and turtles.

They're kept in glass-front cases lining the walls of the basement in his home. New "faces" appear from time to time as the young herpetologist (student of snakes) buys or sells specimens. His collection presently is valued at about $1,000.

Started With Chameleons

When Kraig, at the age of 10, bought some chameleons at a circus, it was doubtful his family realized it would lead to such additions as a four-foot python (non-poisonous), a Gila monster (the only one of his poisonous pets kept at home), a boa, a viper from the Tartar steppes of Russia, a skink (water lizard), and possibly the only monitor lizard (2½ feet long) in the United States.

"The main reason I keep my poisonous reptiles at the Columbus Zoo is to protect the people who come to see my collection," Kraig explains. He keeps a snake bite kit around the house, but neither he nor his parents, Mr. and Mrs. William C. Adler, and his brothers, Gary, 14, and Bruce, 11, have had to use it.

Reptile collecting has led Kraig into a number of sidelines. He studies foreign languages to keep up his extensive correspondence with a growing number of collectors all over the world, including Russia. He regularly teaches the reptile phase of biology at his high school.

With the addition of little-known reptiles to his collection, he has to read all available material and then experiment in their care and feeding.

And he has to arrange food for his specimens. This includes raising his own insects — meal worms — to feed some, and finding lettuce, mice, eggs, hamsters, birds and meat for others.

His collection has also made Kraig something of an expert on U.S. customs regulations. He has even lectured to customs inspectors and post office employees about some of the specimens shipped to him from abroad.

At 16, Kraig is among the youngest members of such organizations as the American Assn. for the Advancement of Science, the American Society of Ichthyologists and Herpetologists, the Herpetologists' League, and their British counterparts.

Despite this interest, he will give up his live reptile collection in June when he graduates from Arlington High School here. Already graduated as a cadet first lieutenant from Culver Military Academy in Indiana, Kraig intends to study medicine, with the hope of becoming a surgeon.

"Maybe after I become a doctor, I'll start collecting live reptiles again, at least on a limited scale," he says. In the meantime, Kraig won't be out of the "business" entirely. He'll keep his collection of preserved specimens, about 200 in all.

Juror Dismissed;
Caught In Raid

PRESTONBURG, Ky. (AP) — Judge Edward P. Hill, about to charge a newly impaneled grand jury, paused to reflect that the face of one member seemed familiar.

Then the judge summoned Deputy Sheriff Frank Blackburn and asked him, under oath, if he hadn't raided the juror's premises and if his case hadn't been considered by the previous grand jury.

Blackburn replied that he had raided and volunteered that he also found liquor.

The juror was dismissed.

Milking Goats, Taking Bath
Improved Governor's Singing

By HUGH A. MULLIGAN

The Associated Press

When Jimmy Davis was governor of Louisiana a decade or so ago, he was always either "down on the farm milking his goats" or "upstairs taking a bath" when reporters came to call.

These diversions may have annoyed the press corps but they had a salubrious effect on the handsome chief executive's fine vocal chords, since they provided him an opportunity to practice his singing in private.

Davis, you may remember, was known as the "Singing Governor." He made his way into the stately mansion that Huey Long built by campaigning with a cowboy band and singing one of his own compositions, "You Are My Sunshine."

"Comeback Candidate"

One of the most popular governors in Louisiana's stormy political history, Davis returned to his professional entertainer's role after four years in office and has been rumored as a comeback candidate in almost every election since then.

Whether he still has the goats is not known, but there is no doubt that Jimmy still possesses one of the finest Western yodels on either side of the Red River Valley. This is amply demonstrated in his new Decca album "Hymn Time," featuring six of his own compositions and eight camp meeting type hymns by other writers. The Anita Kerr singers provide excellent background accompaniment.

Another cowboy singer, Tennessee Plowboy Eddy Arnold, has a new RCA Victor album devoted entirely to children's songs, or, more properly, adult songs about children.

Grabag Of Sweets

Called "When They Were Young," it presents a grabbag of sentimental sweets ranging from "Don't Ever Take the Ribbons From Your Hair" to a sagebrush version of Brahms' Lullaby. Arnold is smooth, stylish and engaging, and only the most confirmed child

THE WAVES HAVE SAME BENEFITS
ASENLISTED MEN

By JANE EADS

The Associated Press

WASHINGTON — The WAVES were only 15 years old last July 30, but since 1948 they have been an integral part of the Navy, assured of the same advancement, security, pay, allowances and benefits as the men.

Their current strength is 5,000 enlisted women and 725 officers. They are not only on duty in continental United States but in Alaska, Hawaii, Puerto Rico, Newfoundland, Japan, Norway, England, France, Italy, Germany, and the Philippines.

They have served in nearly every type of shore activity, including air stations, naval hospitals, Navy yards and supply depots. A few have been assigned as hospital corpsmen aboard dependent transports of the Military Sea Transport Service.

WAVE Lawyers In D. C.

In Washington there are WAVE lawyers in the judge advocate's office and a WAVE comptroller. A WAVE heads up the aerological unit at Alameda, Calif. There are WAVE instructors in international law and one is on the faculty of the Navy's post graduate school at Monterey, Calif.

At first the Navy expected to enlist or appoint only 10,000 women in the Naval Reserves, but the WAVES were so successful that the organization reached a wartime strength of 85,000. The name WAVES stood for Women Appointed for Volunteer Emergency Service, a combination of words obviously chosen for its "salty" initial letters.

College President Was First Director

Capt. Mildred McAfee Morton, former Wellesley College president, was the first WAVE director. Blue-eyed Capt. Winifred Redden Quick, one of the first officers to enter the reserve corps in 1942 and one of the first two to be sent overseas in 1944, is current director. Born in Great Falls, Mont., the 45-year-old director is a business administration graduate of the University of Southern California.

WAVES believe they have a job to do. Their job, Capt. Quick explains, is to "help the men of the Navy with the military tasks that must be done throughout the shore establishments to back up the forces afloat."

"To carry forth this mission," she says, "we must maintain a trained, useful nucleus that could provide the necessary leadership and spearhead the mobilization of vast numbers of women in times of serious national emergency."

"In peacetime," she added, "it not only offers a wonderful career, but gives a chance to serve her country, as well as an opportunity to serve in jobs around the world."

FREDERICK, Md. (AP) — The imitation owl bought to scare the pigeons off city hall was effective, but only to a point.

When the owl, with two sets of eyes, fore and aft, was put in the middle of the roof, the pigeons just retreated to the edge. Now the city is going to buy three more plastic owls—one for each corner of the roof.

News Briefs

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower told Soviet Premier Bulganin today that the Russian leader's Jan. 8 letter proposing a summit conference has already been answered in substance.

The White House made public a five-line letter in which Eisenhower formally acknowledged receipt of Bulganin's message. The President's message was released after the U.S. Embassy in Moscow delivered it to the Soviet Foreign Office.

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — A sister of Russell Bufalino testified today at his deportation hearing that "I've been hearing all my life that he was born in the United States."

The government charges that Bufalino, a 54-year-old Pittston, Pa., dress manufacturer, who attended the so-called "Crime Convention" last November at Apalachin, N.Y., was born in Montedore, Sicily. Bufalino claims he was born in Pittston, Nov. 29, 1903.

MEDIA, Pa. (AP) — Officials of Springfield Twp., Delaware County, yesterday enforced Pennsylvania's 164-year-old Blue Laws prohibiting Sunday sales.

Five of six stores previously warned against doing business on Sunday were closed when police checked them. Police Chief Lester Forrester said the stores closed were three drug stores and two hardware firms.

Airline's Ban On Marriages Is Really Thrashed By Love

KANSAS CITY (AP) — Wedding bells no longer signal an end to the careers of airline stewardesses. They could meet the other requirements. She adds:

"The vast majority contacted were of the opinion that they didn't think the uniform would fit them since they had started raising their own crop of hostesses and pilots."

The airline also decided to allow those already in service to continue to fly after marriage if they wished to do so and as long as they too continued to meet the other requirements.

"Wedding Gift"

As TWA was formulating its new policy a pretty 24-year-old blonde was in the midst of the usual pre-marriage preparations at her home in Wheaton, Minn.

"I was really thrilled," says Mrs. Lorrie Jern, "when they called from Kansas City just three days before my marriage to inform me that I wouldn't have to resign."

Lorrie became the first TWA stewardess to marry and continue her flight duties when her father, the Rev. Arthur Dirks, united her in marriage on Sept. 7 with Jean Jern.

While the airline has relaxed its policy considerably, it still will not hire married women and train them as hostesses, nor will it hire divorcees.

Burns Donations

CRAB ORCHARD, Ky. (AP) — When the Baptist Church congregation contributed a sizeable collection, church treasurer Frank Burch took it home and hid the donations in a wastebasket for safekeeping overnight.

The next morning, unthinkingly, he carried the basket out and dumped its contents into a trash fire.

Burch suddenly remembered the check and jumped into the fire, scattering it right and left.

He spent the rest of the day visiting the homes of contributors, exchanging badly scorched pieces of paper for new checks.

WANTS U. S. TO USE RUSSIA'S DISCOVERIES

WASHINGTON (AP) — An American scientist proposed today that the United States cut down waste and advance its own research by making greater use of discoveries by the Russians.

The scientist, Dr. Lloyd V. Berkner, president of Associated Universities Inc., which carries on research projects, criticized what he said was inadequate government dissemination of science data. He called for a wide range of federal moves to step up the flow of important information.

While U. S. translations of Soviet science writings generally lag, he added, federal bureaus have been stamping secret some public Russian articles they do translate. Thus one Soviet paper reportedly wound up being translated seven times by different groups, he said.

Berkner's prepared testimony marked the opening of a new series of hearings by the House Government Information subcommittee on restrictions on the flow of scientific information.

Committee Chairman Moss (D-Calif.) said American scientists face the two-fold problem of "too little information on the one hand, but too much in a useless form on the other."

Since President Eisenhower wants Congress to ease curbs on giving science data to the allies, Moss said, Eisenhower should be asked whether the Pentagon will extend the same courtesy to Americans too.

Dr. Alan T. Waterman, president of the National Science Foundation, told another House Committee last week that a program is now under way to abstract all Russian science papers in English and to supply complete translations of the more important works free of charge.

EARLY TRADING ACTIVE

NEW YORK (AP) — Rails backed away from recent gains as the stock market was mixed in moderately active early trading today. Leading issues throughout the list showed small plus and minus signs, generally within a 1-point range. The rails were off by small fractions with Seaboard down about a point.

American Telephone was actively traded and ahead around 2 points as trading on a when-issued basis began in the rights to its huge issue of convertible debentures.

The rights opened on a big block of 100,000 shares at 226-32.

Out Of The Past

From the Files of the Star and Sentinel and
The Gettysburg Times

ONE HUNDRED YEARS AGO
Mr. John Hoke has disposed of his Dry Goods and Grocery Store in the Diamond to Messrs. Crawford Gwinn & Bro., who will take possession in the spring.

We are gratified to be able to state that the ladies of Christ Church have collected ten dollars and made Dr. Krauth, their Pastor, a life member of the Young Men's Christian Association. The compliment to Dr. Krauth is deserved, and the aid to the Association will be timely. The example of the ladies of the Presbyterian and Lutheran churches is worthy of imitation by the other congregations of the town and neighborhood.

Bold Robbery: The store of A. T. Wright in Bendersville, this county, was broken into on Monday night, the 11th Inst., and a small amount of goods carried off, and some small change taken out of the drawer. The object of the thief or thieves appears to have been money, but they only obtained a small amount. They effected their entrance by boring through the front door. It is thought they intended to break into George Minigh's also, but were alarmed by the dogs, as the tools they had used were found on his porch next morning. The robbers have not been caught.

Joel B. Danner Esq. has entered upon his duties as Treasurer of this county — the term of office of the late worthy incumbent having expired week before last.

The election on Monday last for President and Directors of the Gettysburg Railroad resulted in favor of the following gentlemen: President, Robert McCurdy; Directors, Abraham Klise, G. W. McClellan, Josiah Benner, Fuller Crane, J. W. Hendrix, Geo. Tyne, D. M. Myers, Fred Diehl, Joseph Bailey, John Gilbert, David Willis and John Musselman.

SEVENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO
Snow to the depth of five inches fell last week, followed by intense cold. On Friday morning the mercury stood at 4 degrees above zero.

All day Friday was very cold, and by midnight the mercury registered five degrees below zero. Towards morning there was a rapid rise in temperature, followed by sleet and snow. Another cold wave set in, making the compact bed of snow and ice on the high-ways, with capital sleighing. Since then the sleigh-bells have been jingling merrily, while nightly "coasting" has been the sport of the boys and girls.

Frank H. Biesecker, Cashtown, has the contract for building a monster barn for S. W. Sollenberger, Franklin county. It is to be 100 feet long and 54 feet wide. Mr. Biesecker has also contracts for two other barns in Franklin county, one 75 by 50 feet, and the other 72 by 48 feet — all to be completed by next summer.

Elections: The First National Bank of Gettysburg elected George Thorne, Peter Diehl, John Wolford, Robert Bell, Alexander Spangler, Daniel Culp and Samuel Koser directors and the board re-appointed the old officers.

The Gettysburg National Bank elected the following Directors: J. A. Swope, D. Willis, D. Kende-hart, W. D. Himes, Lewis Motter, Edgar Sagle, Henry Wirt, Wm. McSherry, Jacob Resser.

On the evening of January 4, Comrade Wilson, assisted by Comrades Bigham, Holtzworth, and Plank of Post No. 9, Gettysburg, installed the officers of "Capt. John E. Walker Post, No. 287 G.A.R." at Waynesboro. The installation ceremonies were public, a number of ladies being present.

INTEGRITY

A great many things that come to us in life are very important. Many of them are in the blood at birth. Others we often acquire through example. The one trait I noted in my father was his integrity. Once he gave his word that was enough. There was no need to write it down either! A man of integrity is indeed a man of wealth — a wealth that is so stable it never melts away. What a joy it is to deal with such a one. No lawyers needed, for they would only complicate matters and often fog up a deal. Integrity can always ride alone. There would be no serious "teen-age" problem if integrity of mind and heart were drilled in a child in its earliest youth. That cherry tree myth about Washington characterized Washington, the Father of his Country, and it is why the story has remained from generation to generation. The great President was a man of the most pronounced integrity.

In the home and in the classroom integrity should be taught and exemplified over and over again. Study history. Our great men and women have always been those of unvarnished integrity. Better than gold and flimsy acclaim is this one outstanding virtue. It has been handed down through the ages as man's "rod and staff" of character. God's loan that is never called! This integrity is evidenced in the look of a person's face, even in the foot stride. In the selection of a friend, of an associate in business, or just a life companion, integrity is all important. We can ride with it and it gives up confidence, and pride.

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "Hungry Hearts". Protected, 1958, by The George Matthew Adams Service

Just Folks

THE WORLD IS SAFE

He sees men clamoring for gold.

He sees men fight and strive for gain;

He hears men publicly extolled

Because of fortunes they attain.

And yet he still believes that he

Has time to take upon his knee

His children every night

And tell them tales of ancient lore.

Or romp with them about the floor

And teach them what is right.

He sees men getting rich each day,

He sees them struggling hour by hour

Fighting and weary on the way,

Their goal—a little bit of power.

And yet he still believes that he

Has time a father kind to be,

A friendly neighbor, too;

And off he pauses on his way

To some cheering word to say,

A kindly deed to do.

The world is in no danger while

There still remain such simple souls

Who do not crave a yellow pile

Nor seek always the lofty goals.

While some remain to pause and play

With little children by the way,

Or help some one in need,

While some still shun the money craze

To soothe another's troubled days,

The world is safe indeed.

BLAST ROCKS TEXAS PLANT KILLING THREE

BAYTOWN, Tex. (AP)—A thunderous explosion rocked the United Rubber & Chemical Co. plant near here yesterday, killing three men. Six others were injured, three seriously.

Flames shot 100 feet into the air following the blast. A plant official blamed it on butadiene gas, which is used in making synthetic rubber. Two of the dead were buried under tons of debris somewhere in the two buildings destroyed by the blast.

The plant, located on a 47-acre site about three miles from here, is some 25 miles from Texas City where a series of ship explosions killed more than 500 in 1947.

Dig For Bodies

The victims were identified as J. E. Owens, 32, Highlands, Tex., Chester Trahan, 41, and Ed Stokley, 59, both of Baytown.

Plant workers were digging into the rubble to recover the bodies of Trahan and Stokley. Howard Dunaway, 51, Channelview, Tex.; Miller Day, 44, Mont Belvieu, Tex., and Louis F. Fisher, Baytown, were hospitalized. The other injured men were not seriously hurt.

Gordon F. Harriman, one of 40 persons working at the plant when the blast occurred, said "I saw it blow right out the roof of both those buildings. It blew the windows out of my building, knocked our front door and threw me on the floor."

Firemen controlled the fire about an hour and a half later. The explosion was felt 12 miles away.

Reading Collision Fatal To Woman

READING, Pa. (AP)—A two-car collision on Route 562 near Reading last night killed Mrs. Christina Peifer, 66, Stonersville, and injured her husband and another man.

The victim's husband, Martin, 64, identified as the driver of one of the autos, suffered a possible skull fracture and a fractured left leg. The driver of the other car, Armando Suarez, 26, of Reading, R. 1, suffered a skull fracture and a broken left shoulder. They were taken to St. Joseph's Hospital where attendants reported they were in fair condition.

Cherokee Indians Break Up North Carolina Klan Rally

LUMBERTON, N. C. (AP)—Sheriff Malcolm McLeod says he will ask a grand jury today to indict a Ku Klux Klan leader who had his rally shot out from under him by whooping Indians.

The Robeson County law officer said he wanted charges of inciting to riot brought against the Rev. James Cole of Marion, S. C., self-styled KKK leader of groups in both Carolinas.

Cole, claiming he was denied his rights under the law because he is a member of the white race, said he planned legal action against the sheriff, also a white man.

But later, Cole said the Klan should turn the other cheek as far as further action may be considered.

Indians Break Up Rally

"Being Christian is our job and we should turn the other cheek even when offended," he said.

Cole's rally near here Saturday night ended with Klansmen and spectators scrambling for safety

CBS "ANSWER PLEASE" NOT QUIZ PROGRAM

By CHARLES MERCER
NEW YORK (AP)—Possibly never before have so many Americans wanted to know so much about such a great variety of subjects.

One result of the growing desire for information is the emergence of Walter Cronkite on CBS Radio in a program called "Answer, Please!"

Definitely not a quiz program, it bravely undertakes to toss nubbins of knowledge into the cavernous maw of the public mind five nights a week. The idea evolved naturally. Cronkite says, as a means of answering questions which listeners ask the year around. By the second week of the program's life letters were coming in at the rate of 6,000 weekly.

Radio Is Better
Radio is a much better means of answering questions than a TV program, says the television-sea-sawing Cronkite, because you can answer more questions more completely without making a production of each. Television would require a more complicated and costly operation—and the answers would be the same.

Thus far the predominating questions have concerned science in general and science in relation to world affairs. Next come questions about the machinery of the U.S. Government and provisions of the Constitution on various specific points. Queries about the White House and the Eisenhower family have turned "Answer, Please!" researchers into experts on the Presidential life.

14 Per Broadcast

Since the program began Cronkite has answered about 14 questions per broadcast, some of them at length.

The specific questions are a cinch. But when someone asks: "Will we ever get ahead of Russia? Who will reach the moon first? Will we ever have war again? When will we get our satellite up?" Cronkite eases out of it by replying: "If I knew, I'd be working for the Pentagon instead of CBS Radio."

PARCHED PLAINS BLANKETED BY HEAVY SNOW

DENVER (AP)—Heavy, widespread snow blew eastward today after coating the parched Great Plains with life-giving moisture for crops and livestock.

The four-engine C97, flying from Honolulu to Kwajalein, last was heard from 385 miles south-west of Honolulu.

Widen Search For Lost Weather Plane

GUAM (AP)—SOS signals caused the Air Force to widen the search area to 50,000 square miles today in a hunt for a B50 weather plane that vanished while tracking a typhoon.

The signals were monitored yesterday from the area 950 miles west of Guam where the plane with 10 crewmen aboard disappeared Tuesday. The faint signals were heard in Guam, Hawaii, Anchorage and Adax.

The Air Force was having trouble pin pointing the signals, believed from an emergency hand-operated radio set, because of radio broadcasts on 8200-8500 kilocycle bands. It asked that radio operators not broadcast on those bands.

Rain And Snow
In its eastward movement, the storm stretched up to North Dakota and through Iowa into the Great Lakes region. Rain and snow fell in the areas touched by the storm's leading edge and the Weather Bureau said that by tonight there would be from 2 to 5 inches of snow across northern Illinois, extreme southern Wisconsin and lower Michigan. Heavier amounts were in prospect for eastern Kansas, northwest Missouri and south central Iowa.

Rain and snow associated with the huge storm were expected to strike a vast area. Rain was in store for the Gulf states northward into the Ohio Valley. And a mixture of rain, sleet or snow was forecast for the lower Great Lakes.

Below Zero Weather
In the Northeast, northerly winds continued to pour cold air into the area bringing temperatures to below zero in most of the interior sections of New York and New England. The chill winds accounted for temperatures in the teens and low 20s as far south as northern Virginia.

A new Pacific storm front approached the Northwest coast and temperatures began a downward trend.

Temperatures and weather conditions at representative cities across the nation early today included Boston 13 and clear, New York City 19 and clear, Washington 29 and clear, Atlanta 37 and partly cloudy, Miami 59 and partly cloudy, Dallas 51 and cloudy, St. Louis 36 and rain, Denver 37 and cloudy, Minneapolis 19 and cloudy, Des Moines 23 and cloudy, Seattle 41 and partly cloudy, San Francisco 46 and partly cloudy, Los Angeles 33 and partly cloudy, Phoenix 42 and clear.

Transport Plane Is Missing; 7 Aboard

HONOLULU (AP)—An armada of ships and planes continued into the second day today the search of 75,000 square miles of the mid-Pacific for a missing Military Air Transport Service cargo plane with seven men aboard from Travis Air Force Base, Calif.

The four-engine C97, flying from Honolulu to Kwajalein, last was heard from 385 miles south-west of Honolulu.

Eight Navy and Coast Guard vessels and 20 rescue planes combed the search area.

Classy Temple Squad Drubs Scrappy Bullets 89-68 For 10th Straight; Freshmen Win

Guy Rodgers and his Temple Owls lived up to advance notices as they breezed to an easy 89-68 victory over the Gettysburg College Bullets before the biggest crowd of the home season Saturday evening.

Bob Hulton's Bullets put up a scrappy and commendable battle against the powerful Owls but were no match for the speedy and tall-senior-studded Philadelphia outfit.

Local fans enjoyed their biggest moments in the first five minutes of play when the Bullets set the pace but at the five-minute mark Temple took over and from then on there was never any question as to the ultimate outcome.

Rodgers Pace-Setter

Rodgers led all scorers with 25 points on seven goals on 19 shots and 11 free throws in 12 attempts. He also added seven assists to his impressive record. Del Warfel enjoyed one of his better scoring efforts with 24 tallies most of which came during the second half.

A three-pointer by Warfel after 26 seconds got Gettysburg off to a fast start. Mel Brodsky's goal for the Owls was followed by two fouls by Frank Capitani. Bill Kennedy and Walt McGowan exchanged goals and then Temple took a 7-4 lead on a goal by Tink Van Patton, foul by Kennedy and goal by Rodgers. A set by Capitani gave the Bullets their last lead at 8-7 after 3:19 minutes. A goal and foul by Rodgers was followed by a jump shot by Frank Grzelecki to knot the score at 10-10 after 4:57.

Temple then ran up seven straight points via goals by Rodgers, Kennedy and Jay Norman, plus a foul by the latter, before Bob Walsack netted a long toss.

The Owls took complete command from then on and led 42-23 at intermission.

Throughout the second half Temple, winning its 11th straight for a 12-2 record, easily protected its margin with some dazzling speed and tricky foot work and was in complete control of the boards, capturing 64 rebounds as compared to 26 by the much shorter Bullets.

Gettysburg's 27 goals came on 81 tries while Temple made good on 33 of 78.

Fresh Look York

Howard Shoemaker's freshmen broke the seven-game winning streak of York Junior College in the preliminary with a 75-62 triumph, their fourth in nine starts. The frosh gave the visitors an early 6-0 lead but gradually pulled to the front to hold a 34-29 lead at the half.

Phil Graham poured through 18 points for the winners with Bill Fitzkee collecting 16 and Bob MacDougal and Barry Kain 15 each. Howie Jones topped York with 15. Milt Brown, York's scoring ace, was limited to two goals. The visitors' record is now 9-3.

Due to mid-year exams, the frosh will be idle until Saturday, February 1, when they meet Stevens Trade here in the preliminary to the varsity-Penn State game.

BOWLING KING RETAINS CROWN IN MINNEAPOLIS

MINNEAPOLIS (AP)—The king of bowling retained his crown but a new queen was enthroned last night before a screaming packed house in the Minneapolis Armory.

Defending champion Don Carter of St. Louis won his fourth All-Star Bowling Tournament title with a little more effort than before.

Merle Matthews, Long Beach, Calif., the new women's titlist, had herself a real battle in wrenching the championship from Marion Ladewig of Grand Rapids, Mich.

See-saw Contest

In the 16th and final round of the finals, Carter's foe was his fellow St. Louisian, Buzz Fazio, captain of the national team champion Palstaffs who went into the ultimate round with a slim 1-30 Petersen point advantage.

In the first game of the match Carter fell farther behind as Fazio outshot him, 245-227.

Then Carter won the next three games. The champion tossed a 227-236-212-194-869 series to Fazio's 245-189-168-193-795.

Averages 214

Carter ended the tournament finals with a Petersen point total of 311-03, reflecting a 37½, won-26½ lost record. He felled 13,678 pins in the 64 games encompassing the finals, an average of nearly 214.

His spoils included a $5,000 check and the customary enormous trophy.

Merle finished the tournament with a 145-09 point total. She won 21 of the 32 games in the finals while felling 6,209 pins for a .194 average, a $2,000 check and a mammoth trophy.

WILL TELEVIEW ORIOLE GAMES

This season's Oriole baseball games will be televised over WJZ-TV, Channel 13, in Baltimore.

According to William C. Geoghegan, advertising director of the Gunther Brewing Company, the Birds' sponsor, the television coverage to be given this year's games will be the most elaborate since the return of big league baseball to Baltimore. Five cameras and an 11-man production crew will be utilized in telecasting the games from Memorial Stadium.

Play-by-play descriptions of the games will again be done by the Gunther sportscasting team, Ernie Harwell and Herb Carneal.

"The complete schedule of dates has not yet been finalized, but will be ready shortly," said Geoghegan.

Larry Israel, general manager of WJZ-TV, said, "We are pleased to have been selected to bring the televised Oriole games to the viewing public."

SCHOOL CAGERS WILL FIND HARD GOING THIS WEEK

HARRISBURG (AP)—Many league and district champions face challenges this week in Pennsylvania scholastic basketball.

While the majority of last year's leaders are still on top, some of their top challengers are getting trouble from the weaker teams.

Here's what developed from Friday's games on a regional basis:

In the West:

Dist. 6—With Altoona, district defending champ, idle, attention centered on the Johnstown-Windermere game in which Johnstown lost its first in eight years to Windermere, 56-52. Altoona has defeated Windermere this year.

Dist. 7—Sharon, defending WPIAL champion, continued undefeated but made its worst showing of the season in defeating New Castle, 53-44.

Farrell disposed of Beaver Falls 52-41, and powerful Ford City flattened Arnold, 58-36.

Dist. 9—District king Clearfield lost to Kane, 58-33. Tomorrow's games may see the champ permanently deposed.

Other Results

Dist. 10—Erie Strong Vincent racked up its 10th straight win of the season, downing Mt. Creek, 62-52.

Meadville, usually regarded as the No. 1 challenger to ESV, lost to Titusville, 55-44.

In the East:

Dist. 1—Runner-up state champion Chester beat Haverford, 78-72.

Dist. 2—Defending district champion Nanticoke, lost to Plymouth, 40-39, in a battle for the Wyoming Valley League lead.

North League champ Swoyersville crushed Wilkes-Barre Twp., 72-34.

Dist. 3—Reading won its fifth straight, crushing Harrisburg Harris, 62-39, and apparently is on the way to another Central Penn title.

Dist. 4—Coal Twp. kept on top in the Keystone League, beating Berwick, 74-59.

Dist. 11—Allentown defeated Pottsville, 82-71. Palmerton beat Catawissa, 46-45, to remain first in the Lehigh Valley league.

Hazleton lost to Easton, 56-52, dampening its district title hopes.

Dist. 12—Reading won its fifth straight, crushing Harrisburg Harris, 62-39, and apparently is on the way to another Central Penn title.

Dist. 4—Coal Twp. kept on top in the Keystone League, beating Berwick, 74-59.

Says Charles Lamb Had Recipe For "Greatest Pleasure"; Cruel Cure For Hungarian Bigamists

By HAL BOYLE
NEW YORK (AP)—Things a columnist might never know if he didn't open his mail:

That, if you think rabbits know how to multiply, consider the fruit fly, which produces as many as 25 generations in a single year. If all the descendants of a pair of fruit flies lived and bred, in just 12 months they'd make a ball 98 million miles in diameter. So swat that fruit fly and save your world!

That if you need calcium here's a way to get it cheaply: save your eggshells. Dry them thoroughly, then grind them fine enough for comfortable swallowing. But don't overdo it—you might sprout feathers.

Punishment For Bigamist
That in old Hungary a bigamist was subjected to a cruel and unusual punishment. He was compelled to live with both his wives. That Larry Mack, young prey of the Slenderella film, says: "A wedding ring is like a tourniquet. It stops your circulation."

That if you're weary of paying laundry bills, cheer up. A textile-like paper that can be used for making clothing is being developed. ("I'm tired of pine shirts; don't you have anything new in elm?")

Cucumbers Not Cool
That the phrase "cool as a cucumber" doesn't make much sense. Thermometer tests have proved that on a hot day the inside of a cucumber is warmer than the air outside. Just what can a man believe?

That one third of the driving in the United States is now done by women. And that doesn't even include the back seat driving.

That a Navy doctor found "relatively older men" stationed in Antarctica bore up better under the long winter strain than younger men. And, oddly, ice cream and cold drinks were more popular than soup and hot drinks.

That psychiatrists believe most

Don Juans—career lady chasers—are actually less, not more, virile than ordinary men. The poor show-offs are trying to prove something to themselves that simply isn't so.

"The Greatest Pleasure"
That it has been found business executives get more headaches than professional men, such as lawyers or doctors. Could be it's because they have to deal with more headaches.

That F. W. Woolworth, father of the dime store, failed in business four times before he really clicked.

That the average cow produces about 6,000 pounds of milk a year. Not bad for a factory bound in leather.

That it was Charles Lamb who said: "The greatest pleasure I know is to do a good action by stealth, and to have it found out by accident."

BUSINESSMEN TO SCAN IKE'S REPORT TODAY

NEW YORK (AP)—Businessmen will scan the President's economic report to the nation today, looking for what the administration plans to do in the present situation and what it would do if the current recession widens and deepens.

Both programs are becoming clearer now on such matters as taxes, pump priming, money policy, public works and deficit financing.

The administration would like to balance the next budget even if that now looks like an outside chance. To that end, its present plan is to urge Congress to renege the present high tax rates.

Want Emergency Levies

That means a move to get Congress again to extend by one year the 52 per cent corporate income levy first enacted as an emergency measure in the Korean War. The rate is scheduled to drop to

SAYS METEORITE COULD TRIGGER TERRIBLE WAR

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Meteorite tracker Dr. H. H. Nininger of Sedona, Ariz., says a falling meteorite might cause the extermination of the human race by setting off atomic warfare.

Dr. Nininger, head of the American Meteorite Museum since its founding in 1946, offered this explanation in an interview today in support of his terrifying idea: "Those charged with the defense of our nation never have made meteorites the subject of study. A falling meteorite very easily may be mistaken for an intercontinental ballistic missile."

Should Be Taught
"Until the advent of the ballistic missile and the Sputniks, such errors were dangerous only to a few. Today the situation has changed. A meteorite could explode over Los Angeles today and we might find ourselves engaged in warfare before the true identity of the object was ascertained."

Dr. Nininger, who has been engaged in the study of meteorites for 37 years, said all military defense personnel should be thoroughly familiarized with the known auditory and visual characteristics of falling meteorites as differentiated from the characteristics of ballistic missiles. He said radar technicians should be instructed in recognizing both the blip of the meteorite and the ionization trail left by the meteorite's passage.

47 per cent July 1.

The administration also wants the excise taxes similar marked as emergency to be voted for another year. These selective sales taxes make your autos, cigarettes, liquor and train rides cost more.

As the economy stands now this is what the administration wants. But it seems prepared, if the recession really starts rolling, to cut taxes both as a relief to business and as a means of giving the consumer more to spend. Congress seems even more prepared to do so. This is an election year.

Tight money gradually is turning to easy money. The Federal Reserve is lowering its interest charges to banks and allowing cut. It is thought ready to let the banks have more money to lend if they need it.

The administration is promising the home building pump by easing up on credit terms and by releasing funds for public housing.

It is indicating that it won't shy from deficit financing if needed to maintain its increased defense spending plans.

Pump priming is a byproduct of other policies—increased defense spending, the big highway program, proposed financial aids to education. Also, between them the administration and the congress seem unlikely to lower spending on present non defense items.

GET BACKING FOR EASTERN DAIRY SHOW

FARM COLUMN
By RICHARD L. GRAVES
HARRISBURG (AP)—The administration has thrown its weight behind proposals to establish an eastern states dairy exposition at the Pennsylvania Farm Show Building.

Henning said a number of the state's dairy organizations have backed establishment of an interstate event. All agree that the giant 14-acre Farm Show Building and its 37 acres of parking space are an outstanding facility for such an exposition.

Developed For Years
The dairymen's association suggested that the interstate event be held in conjunction with the annual state Junior Dairy Show held at the Farm Show Building each September.

The major problem of setting up an exposition is financing. The livestock exposition was in the works for more than a year before it was held. The idea had been developed for years.

"With the growing emphasis on grassland farming and its allied industries in Pennsylvania, this type of show provides the perfect media for educating not only the farmer, but also the public," Henning declared.

BIG "JOEY" FAY GETS SUMMONS TO SPOTLIGHT

NEW YORK (AP) — Big, bellicose Joseph S. (Joey) Fay, a labor racketeer who has been a strong-arm power among some businessmen, unions and political bigwigs, is back in the public spotlight.

He has been summoned to appear before the U. S. Senate special committee probing corruption in labor and management.

Fay, 65, released from prison in 1956 after serving eight years for extortion, was a key figure in a sensational scandal that rocked New York state politics five years ago.

Held Court In Prison

At the time it was revealed that Fay, even while in prison, held court for a stream of visitors.

Former Gov. Thomas E. Dewey forced the resignation of then acting Lt. Gov. Arthur Wicks, one of Fay's callers.

Wicks—a Republican, like Dewey—said his four or five visits to Fay were to seek his help in keeping labor peace in Wicks' home district of Kingston, N. Y. Wicks claimed Fay, though behind bars, still had a potent sway in labor.

Repercussions In N.J.

The case also had repercussions in New Jersey, where Fay began his rough-and-tumble career as a force in the International Union of Operating Engineers.

Paul L. Troast, the Republican candidate for governor in 1953, was among some businessmen who had written Dewey earlier asking for executive clemency for Fay. It developed, Troast was defeated by the Democratic candidate, Gov. Robert B. Meyner.

Power By '30

The crime that sent Fay to prison broke into the open in 1943, when he was indicted in a $368,000 shakedown from contractors on the 300-million-dollar Delaware

Aqueduct water supply project for New York City.

Fay, then international vice president of his union, got the pay-offs by threatening labor trouble.

Fay started his union career in 1920 as a delegate of local 825 of the operating engineers, the men who operate derricks, steam shovels and other construction engineers.

He became business agent of the union, and then branched out and set up his own construction companies. By 1930, he was described as one of the "Big Four" of labor in New Jersey, and a behind-the-scenes power in politics.

Hidden Arsenal Is Found In Home

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Benjamin

Halicki, 39, broke through a secret compartment yesterday while repairing a staircase in his mother's North Philadelphia home. Inside the compartment was an arsenal of 60 pistols and hundreds of rounds of ammunition which police said may have been placed there by gangsters during the Prohibition Era. Along with the guns and ammunition were six deep sea fishing rods wrapped in a Philadelphia newspaper dated May 24, 1932.

Det. Inspector George Kronbar said the bullets were of various caliber and included wooden dum dum types. He said some of the weapons were loaded.

QUAKES, SLIDES KILL HUNDREDS

LIMA, Peru (AP)—Landslides, earthquakes and snow have left a train of death, destruction or discomfort in parts of Latin America.

Peru was hardest hit. Reports, some of them delayed, said at least 128 persons perished in two landslides and recurrent quakes. Earth shocks also claimed 12 lives in Ecuador and spread panic in northern Chile.

Some 300 persons were reported trapped near Mexico City following one of the worst snowfalls in Mexican history.

Word reached Lima that a landslide which buried the Andean mountain hamlet of Pachaco last Monday killed at least 100 persons.

Another quake hit Arequipa, in southwest Peru, the same day, killing 28.

Earth tremors shook Chile's capital, Santiago, last night. There were no reports of casualties or damage.

Leader And Dilworth Are Expected To Announce For Top Offices In Mid-March

By LEONARD A. UNGER
HARRISBURG (P) — The timing of Gov. Leader's announcement that he would be a Democratic candidate for the U. S. Senate was reported today to be tentatively fixed for mid-March.

An important Democratic source, who asked not to be identified, said it would likely tie in with a companion declaration by Mayor Richardson Dilworth of Philadelphia for the Democratic gubernatorial nomination.

It was emphasized, however, that the plan was subject to change on the basis of two possible developments:

1. Whether Lt. Gov. Roy E. Furman, an avowed Democratic candidate for governor, arranges for a senatorial running-mate. So far he is going it alone.

Dilworth To Announce
2. Whether Dilworth makes a decision that he would not enter the race. As it now stands, his close friends say he is expected to announce at the very last minute.

The first day to circulate nomination petitions is Feb. 25. The deadline for filing is March 17. Under Philadelphia's city charter, Dilworth must resign as mayor the minute he becomes an active candidate. Presumably, that means when he files nomination petitions.

A three-way fight, at least, appeared to be shaping up for the Democratic gubernatorial nomination.

Furman Seeks $500,000
Dr. William D. McClelland, Allegheny County coroner, said he was considering announcing his candidacy but said before he did that "there are certain people I must see and things I must consider." Leader defeated McClelland three years ago for the Democratic nomination.

Furman in Pittsburgh announced plans over the weekend to raise at least $500,000. Furman said he had support in 41 counties. He named only Allegheny and Philadelphia. Dilworth's problem reportedly has been to obtain a commitment that his administration's policies would be followed through after his resignation. Council President James H. J. Tate would be his successor automatically.

Green, Dilworth At Odds
Tate has been close to Rep. William J. Green, Philadelphia Democratic city chairman. Green and Dilworth have not seen eye to eye on city patronage.

Both Democrats and Republicans plan slatemaking meetings early in February although definite dates must still be chosen.

On the Democratic side, only the name of Gov. Leader has been seriously discussed in speculation on senatorial candidates. State Sen. John H. Dent had been mentioned as a possible candidate but he apparently gave that idea up in running for Congress. The special election in Westmoreland County is tomorrow.

Miss Genevieve Blatt seems all right.

THE UNITED TELEPHONE COMPANY OF PENNSYLVANIA

OPPOSE STAND BY DILWORTH: SALES, RACING

HARRISBURG (P) — Philadelphia Mayor Richardson Dilworth's stand on Sunday drinking and pari-mutuel betting have drawn the fire of church groups.

The rumored candidate for governor has not hedged any on how he feels.

In a copyrighted interview with the Harrisburg Sunday Patriot-News, Dilworth declared himself for a local option on the matter of Sunday sales of alcohol and for statewide referenda on racetrack betting.

The only obstacle he saw to the latter was that the revenue it promises to bring the state "is not significant."

Opposed To Dilworth
The Rev. O. B. Poulson, head of the Pennsylvania Council of Churches, acknowledged last night that he had arranged a meeting between Gov. Leader and Dr. E. B. Ewing, superintendent of the Pennsylvania Temperance League, and Dr. Melvin K. Forney, head of the Lord's Day Alliance, at which Dilworth's candidacy was discussed.

Dr. Ewing said later that Dilworth would not be an acceptable candidate for his group. The Rev. Mr. Poulson said he could not make official comment.

Both hedged on what, if any, comment the governor made at their meeting when their opposition to Dilworth was voiced.

The governor, in a last minute switch, declared himself against a state referendum on pari-mutuel betting when the question was before the last Legislature.

The measure, which had considerable support, was defeated. Leader had announced he would veto it if it passed.

Dr. Fuchs And His Ground Crew Reach South Pole Today

WELLINGTON, New Zealand (P) — Dr. Vivian Fuchs and his British ground team reached the South Pole today and announced they firmly intend to press on to the other side of Antarctica.

Tough and fit despite their gruelling 57-day trek across more than 900 miles of snow and ice, the British explorer said he would go on as planned to Scott Base, on McMurdo Sound, for the first overland crossing of the continent.

But he added that he had no idea when he would reach the end of his journey.

Rear Adm. George Dufek, U.S. Chief Of Operation Deep Freeze, and Sir Edmund Hillary, who reached the Pole overland 16 days earlier, were on hand to greet the 12 Britons who had brought their tractor train over 940 miles of terrain no man had set foot on before.

"Hello, Bunny"
Hillary and some other experts had advised Fuchs against making the 1,200-mile second leg of the trip because they believe bad weather is in the offing.

When the party reached the U.S. base at the Pole, about 40 men came out to meet them, slapping them on the back, shaking their hands and excitedly congratulating them.

Hillary and Dufek went out to meet the Britons a mile from the polar base. As the tractor train pulled up with flags flying, Hillary advanced to greet Fuchs.

"Hello, Bunny," said the conqueror of Mt. Everest, and the two men shook hands warmly.

Fuchs—a noted geologist—appeared surprised by the welcoming party and battery of cameras.

Chester Safe Is Looted Of $3,000

CHESTER, Pa. (P) — Burglars used a metal punch to remove the combination dial of a safe at the Springhaven Club near here yesterday and escaped with an estimated $3,000.

Maurice L. Maitland, chief of Chester County detectives, said the burglars either overlooked or purposely ignored two cash registers, along with liquor and cigarettes stored in the bar.

Mix minced chives and parsley with melted butter and use for basting lobster halves that are being broiled.

peared surprised by the welcoming party and battery of cameras.

James MARLOW Reports

The Associated Press

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower today began his sixth White House year. It's too soon for final judgments. But some things can be said on both sides of his administration's performance so far.

He's still popular out less so than before. He took office as a military hero and recognized leader. For years he was almost free of criticism. Now he's increasingly being criticized and his leadership questioned.

History may say the two worst things that happened to Eisenhower were his three illnesses, which slowed him up, and Stalin's death. The psychopathic Stalin's one-track hostility frightened Russia's neighbors.

Greatest Prosperity
Stalin's heirs switched tactics and began making progress with blandishments, salesmanship and propaganda. Eisenhower has found no new way to offset them.

As a military leader Eisenhower was expected to keep this country in front of Russia. But he was caught napping on Russian progress in missiles. The proof is his effort now to catch up.

Eisenhower led this country into its greatest period of prosperity although living costs have risen steadily. Now the economy is declining and unemployment increasing.

Practical Economy
He wanted economy and practiced it, although he may have been too economical on defense. He balanced the budget twice but may never be able to do so again. Because of the Russians, his budget this year set a record.

Perhaps his greatest contribution was his restraint and common sense at the time he took office: a time of deep worry over domestic communism with the country almost sick in its division over McCarthyism.

By his patience and decency he helped calm fear and passion. The American Communist Party now is a dwindling threat. Eisenhower's aides helped push Sen. McCarthy and McCarthyism out of the American consciousness.

But his restraint and decency helped calm fear and passion. The American Communist Party now is a dwindling threat. Eisenhower's aides helped push Sen. McCarthy and McCarthyism out of the American consciousness.

Little Rock Episode
That same restraint and hesitancy about irritating anyone may have unintentionally precipitated his greatest domestic crisis: the Little Rock school episode.

In the foreign field Eisenhower got an end to the Korean War, restored quiet to the Far East, may have prevented a World War by forcing a quick end to the British-French-Israeli invasion of Egypt, fought for continued foreign aid, and even went to the Summit Conference in a vain search for peace.

TOUCH OF REALISM
SALT LAKE CITY (AP) — A figure of a frontiersman at the base of a Brigham Young statue in downtown Salt Lake City got an extra touch of realism when someone tied a barrel of the frontiersman's long rifle a brace of freshly killed rabbits.

PA. CITATION TO MD.
PHILADELPHIA (AP) — The German Society of Pennsylvania last night named O. H. Franke, of Baltimore, Md., as recipient of its annual "Citation of Merit." Franke will receive the award in Baltimore today.

Puree cooked lentils for a soup or leave them whole. Serve the soup with thin rounds of frankfurter browned in a little butter.

IKE BEGINNING HIS 6TH YEAR IN PRESIDENCY

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower starts his sixth year in office today—and kicks off a new Republican drive for control of Congress.

The 67-year-old President arranged formal observance of the anniversary this evening at a $100-a-plate GOP dinner in Chicago where he will be guest of honor and make a nationwide television-radio political address (NBC) as the party's chief.

The President and Mrs. Eisenhower scheduled an afternoon flight aboard his private plane, Columbine III.

Nominated There In '52
In Chicago, the President and the First Lady will stay overnight at the Stockyard Inn near the huge International Amphitheater where tonight's dinner is being held—and where Eisenhower was nominated for a first term in July 1952.

They plan to fly back to Washington tomorrow. Forty-four Republican dinners for an estimated 40,000 of the GOP faithful are being held tonight in 27 states and the District of Columbia. In addition to Eisenhower, speakers at the $10 to $100-a-plate affairs from coast to coast include Vice President Nixon, many other top administration officials and Republican congressional leaders.

To Raise Funds
Nixon, speaking from the New York dinner at the Waldorf-Astoria Hotel, will introduce Eisenhower. The President will talk for about 10 minutes on the half hour TV-radio program being beamed to the party dinners around the country as well as to the public generally.

The party effort from the President on down is geared to raising funds for the GOP campaign to wrest control of Congress from the Democrats in the November elections.

Aged Politician Dies On Saturday

SAINT MARYS, Pa. (AP) — Funeral services for D. J. Driscoll, 86, one-time member of Congress and a former chairman of the Pennsylvania Democratic Committee, will be held here tomorrow in the Sacred Heart Church.

Driscoll died Saturday night of an acute kidney condition in his Saint Marys home. Surviving are his widow and two daughters.

Driscoll was chairman of the state Democratic committee in 1905. He served in the U.S. House of Representatives from 1934 until 1936.

He was a U.S. attorney for the western Pennsylvania district during the second Woodrow Wilson administration. During the latter part of the administration of Gov. George H. Earle Driscoll was chairman of the Pennsylvania Public Utility Commission.

LEADS VOTING IN GUATEMALA
By RICHARD G. MASSCO
GUATEMALA (AP) — Candidates of the right and left were leading today in first returns from the presidential election in this one-time Communist beachhead of the Western Hemisphere. But the outcome of yesterday's voting was not expected to be known until late this week.

Provisional President Guillermo Flores Avendano said no matter who won, the danger of Communist influence in Guatemala probably is less than in the United States.

Unofficial returns from 94 of Guatemala City's 183 polling places gave 18,393 votes to Gen. Miguel Ydigoras Fuentes, 62-year-old veteran right-wing aspirant, and 13,811 to Mario Mendez Montenegro, 47, of the leftist Revolutionary Party.

Col. Jose Luis Cruz Salazar, 38-year-old middle-of-the-roader backed by the late President Carlos Castillo Armas' Democratic Nationalist Movement (MDN) had 6,861 votes. Col. Enrique Ardon trailed far behind with 457.

Governor Attends Weisberg's Funeral
PITTSBURGH (AP) — Milton Weisberg, state deputy secretary of labor and industry, was buried yesterday following services attended by Gov. Leader and a host of government and union leaders.

Weisberg, a Pittsburgh labor leader, died last Thursday of injuries suffered two days earlier in a multiple crash on the Pennsylvania Turnpike near Bedford.

Gov. Leader, Mayor David L. Lawrence of Pittsburgh and President Harry Boyer of the CIO Council delivered eulogies.

Among those attending the services were William L. Batts Jr., state secretary of labor and industry, and Joseph A. McDonough, president of the Pennsylvania Federation of Labor.

Joseph J. Marino, 36, also a Pittsburgh union leader and Weisberg's administrative assistant, suffered amputation of his left leg following the accident.

Former Steel Executive Dies

BETHLEHEM, Pa. (AP) — Frederick A. Shick, 79, retired comptroller and director of Bethlehem Steel Corp., died in his hotel room here yesterday of a coronary occlusion.

Shick started with Bethlehem in 1906 and a year later was named comptroller of the corporation. He was elected a director in 1925. He became vice president of Bethlehem Steel Co., a subsidiary of the corporation, in 1934.

A native of Freemansburg, Northampton County, he retired July 31, 1953.

Shick entered into the steel industry in 1894 when he joined the accounting department of Carnegie Steel Co.'s Duquesne works near Pittsburgh.

Services will be held in Trinity Church here Wednesday.

A son, Frederick W., OF Mendham, N.J., and a daughter, Mrs. Walter J. Bragdon, Jr., Pittsburgh survive.

GUATEMALA (AP) — Candidates of the right and left were leading today in first returns from the presidential election in this one-time Communist beachhead of the Western Hemisphere. But the outcome of yesterday's voting was not expected to be known until late this week.

Provisional President Guillermo Flores Avendano said no matter who won, the danger of Communist influence in Guatemala probably is less than in the United States.

Unofficial returns from 94 of Guatemala City's 183 polling places gave 18,393 votes to Gen. Miguel Ydigoras Fuentes, 62-year-old veteran right-wing aspirant, and 13,811 to Mario Mendez Montenegro, 47, of the leftist Revolutionary Party.

Col. Jose Luis Cruz Salazar, 38-year-old middle-of-the-roader backed by the late President Carlos Castillo Armas' Democratic Nationalist Movement (MDN) had 6,861 votes. Col. Enrique Ardon trailed far behind with 457.

Young Rocketeer's Brain Is Pierced
PHILADELPHIA (AP) — A young would-be rocketeer was in satisfactory condition at Jefferson Memorial Hospital today after the explosion of a homemade rocket sent a piece of the rocket casing two inches into his brain.

Doctors who removed the metal piece from the skull of John Earl Jr., 15, of 516 Mulberry St., Millville, N.J., said the high school boy was in "fine shape."

Police said Earl, equipped with binoculars, lugged a pair of rockets Saturday to a field near his home.

BLAME CHICKEN FOR BIG CRASH
STAR, N.C. (AP) — No matter why this chicken crossed the road, everybody wishes he hadn't.

The chicken dashed out in front of James Mabe of High Point yesterday on U.S. 230.

Mabe braked sharply to avoid the fowl. Behind him, James Robert Ricks, Negro minister of High Point, swerved to avoid hitting Mabe.

Oncoming Marvin Seagraves of Wilmington ran his tank truck off the highway to keep from smashing Ricks.

The State Highway Patrol said the truck clipped both cars, climbed an embankment and jackknifed. Ricks banged into Mabe and Mabe squashed the chicken.

The patrol estimated the total damage at $10,000.
